In addition to the written papers, practicals and dissertation, there shall be internal assessment of 100 marks in each Part I of the examination. Head of the Department/Principal of the College shall send to the University internal assessment awards of each candidate 15 days before the commencement of the examination in accordance with the rules laid down by Syndicate.

8. The minimum number of marks required to pass the examination shall be—

- (a) 33 per cent in each written paper;
- (b) 33 per cent in each practical;
- (c) 33 per cent in dissertation;
- (d) 33 per cent in internal assessment; and
- (e) 40 per cent in the aggregate of (a), (b), (c) and (d) above.

Provided that a candidate who fails in one or more papers and/or in the aggregate shall be given grace marks up to 1 per cent of the total aggregate marks of Part I or Part II examination (as the case may be) in order to be declared to have passed the examination.

Provided further that up to one per cent of the aggregate marks of Parts I and II examinations taken together shall be added to the total marks obtained by a candidate in both Part I and Part II examinations, in order to award a higher "Class" to a candidate, provided if the grace marks have not already been given to him/her for passing the examination.

9. A candidate who has obtained a minimum of second class marks in the aggregate of both Part I and Part II examinations taken together shall be deemed to have passed the examination even if he has failed in one or more papers of Part II examination.

10. A candidate who has failed in the examination but has obtained pass marks in dissertation, shall not, if he so desires, be required to submit the dissertation again, and in that case, the marks obtained by him shall be carried forward for the next examination. If he fails in the next examination, the candidate may revise the dissertation and resubmit it for fresh evaluation.

11. A candidate who, having completed the prescribed course of instruction for the examination, has not appeared either in Part I or Part II examination or having appeared in the Examination has failed, will be allowed three consecutive chances only, from the date of completion of the course, to appear either in Part I or Part II examination, after which he shall not be allowed to continue his studies for the M.Sc. Course.

12. Four weeks after the termination of the examination or as soon as possible, the Registrar shall publish a list of successful candidates. Each successful candidate of Part I examination shall receive a certificate.

The successful candidates shall be classified into three "Classes" as under :—

- (a) First Class.—Those who obtain 60 per cent or more of the aggregate number of marks in Part I and Part II examinations, taken together.
- (b) Second Class.—Those who obtain 50 per cent or more but less than sixty per cent, of the aggregate number of marks in Part I, and Part II examinations taken together.
- (c) Third Class.—Those who obtain less than fifty per cent of the aggregate number of marks in Part I and Part II examinations, taken together.
